

COLABORERS INTERNATIONAL

Where the mission field meets your field of study

We are a diverse body of Christian believers working alongside indigenous-led missions in Zambia, India & Costa Rica reaching women & children.

- Full time Intl Missionary Service
- Intern - US Telecommuting or Abroad
- Serve in short term projects
- Professional Trainings
- Sponsor a child

INDIA: Working alongside Hope for India since 2009. Child sponsorship program currently has all children sponsored to receive education, doctor check-ups & basic care. In 2018, we launched a mobile school to teach outdoors in 2 slum areas without access to schools - Katteveram and Bapatla. This year's team is comprised of Indians, Americans and Zambians. It runs every year, is God calling you to the slums to teach next year?

ZAMBIA: Working alongside Chisomo Centers in reaching street children & empowering women since 2012, sending interns, missionaries, trainings and scholarship programs. We support a sewing program to economically empower women, developed a special education curriculum for street kids and a drug and alcohol curriculum "Literacy-Free 12 Step Expressive Arts Therapy" which has been endorsed by Zambia's Ministry of Health. Additional groups across the country are interested in receiving our services. In 2020, missionaries Jason, Jess and Janae to move to Zambia to open a field office to assist groups helping street kids.

COSTA RICA: Missionaries Frank & Brittany are moving to Costa Rica to attend language learning school and identify locally-led organizations reaching women and children we can colobar alongside. Will you join in prayer support?
